Mike Greetham
BSc, FBIAC, MAE

Mike is a farmer's son from Lincolnshire who graduated at Nottingham University with a BSc (Hons) in Agricultural Sciences.

In 1975 he took up a post with full responsibility for the management of the farm business of a well known Nottinghamshire Farmer before joining Andersons in 1979 based at Melton Mowbray as an agriculture business consultant. He then transferred to the Bury St Edmunds office to work principally in Suffolk, Essex and Cambridgeshire where he began to specialise in complex business problem solving work.

By 1984 he had established a national reputation in the fields of specialist feasibility study, unit review, litigation, managed recovery and insolvency practices. Mike became an Equity Partner and returned to head office to set up a new department in conjunction with the Senior Partner, he developed the corporate services consultancy working for Agri-business companies which became Andersons Corporate and Professional Services in 1994 advising corporate businesses, organisations and financial institutions. In 2000, the business had grown to the extent that the business was split into two dedicated businesses. Mike heads Andersons Professional Services providing services for the financial institutions, accountants and the legal profession. He is chair of the Expert Opinion Division of the British Institute of Agricultural Consultants (BIAC). He is also a member of the Academy of Expert and the Agricultural Law Association.

Mike has established a formidable reputation for achieving successful outcome for clients in many areas and is much sought after by the legal, accounting and surveying professions.
