Statement

I am Andrew David Baird. I have been a Consultant Urological Surgeon since October 2007, working in Liverpool both in NHS and Private Practice. My specialist field within Urology is Reconstructive Surgery, Adolescent Urology, and the long-term management of congenital urological conditions. I also have a busy general urology practice. I am currently Clinical Director for Urology within the Division of Surgery and Anaesthesia at University Hospital Aintree.

I have been engaged in medicolegal report writing since 2011, offering services in both medical negligence and personal injury reports. I undertake approximately 40-50 reports per year split between reports for Claimant and Defendant. I also undertake a small number criminal cases each year.
